Valley Figure Skating Club to present

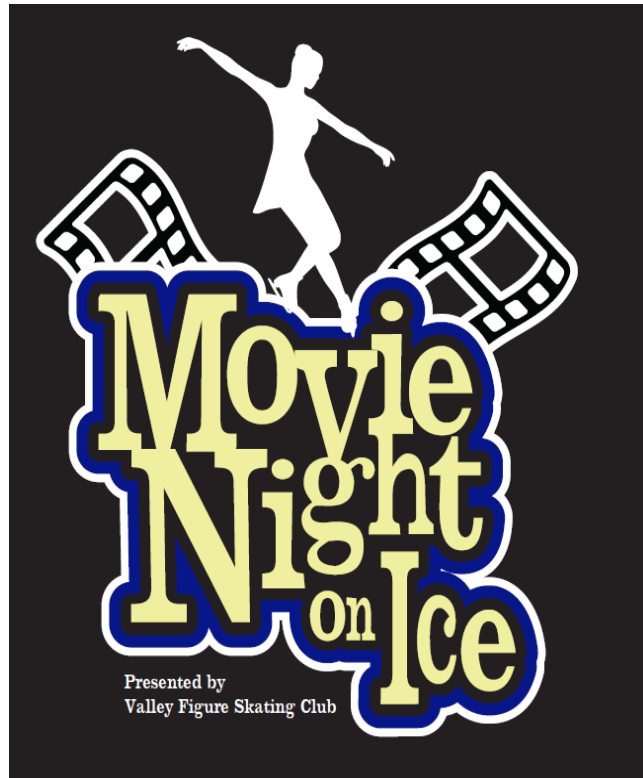

“Movie Night on Ice” Ice Show

Appleton, WI – Local figure skaters from the Valley Figure Skating Club and local Learn to Skate programs will be dazzling audiences with jumps and spins set to your favorite movie music at the Appleton Family Ice Center May 6th and 7th.

The show features 50 skaters ranging in ages from 4-18 who train and compete as members of the Valley Figure Skating Club in the Fox Valley area. Skaters attend schools from the local area and spend many hours rehearsing, practicing and competing throughout the nation. The Fox Valley High School team took third place at the 2015 national competition.

Valley Figure Skating Club has been in existence for 30 years and continues to grow steadily. The annual ice show is a showcase of talent and provides the community with opportunities to enjoy the beauty of figure skating locally. Show times are 7:00pm both evenings with a Saturday matinee at 2:00pm.
